

Hanover Area Chamber presents Ellen Sandles

Ellen Sandles, President of Tri-State Private Investors Network will speak on "Finding Angel Investors for Your Business". This program is directed to entrepreneurs, job seekers, non-profits and others who wish to learn how to use this state of the art business tool. Come to the Apple Spice Junction, Rt. 46 East, Parsippany on Monday, March 8, 2009 from 6:30PM to 8PM, to learn what she has to say on this topic.

Ellen brings over ten years of increasingly successful sales and marketing expertise to the capital raising process having worked within various start-up, high-tech divisions of AT&T Corporation, Harris Corporation and Commerce Clearing House. The Tri-State Private Investors Network is a private, angel investor membership network based in New York City, that serves the interests of both accredited investors who wish to augment their deal flow in a confidential manner, and early stage entrepreneurs who are too small, too early or inappropriate for venture capital financing.

Cost is $10 for members and affiliates, $20 for non-members or free to non-members who join the Chamber that night. For reservations or information call Frank McKinley, program chair at (973) 515-5184.
